Sandra Kay recently embarked with a friend on APT's 20-day Essence of New Zealand tour. She shares her favourite moments, standout experiences, and why she'd recommend APT for a luxury travel experience.

What inspired you to take the Essence of New Zealand tour? My friend Jill and I had previously visited New Zealand separately, each exploring different regions. We loved the idea of experiencing the best of both together. The meticulously planned itinerary made APT an easy choice — we simply packed our bags and enjoyed the journey.

What did you know about APT before you embarked on your tour? Friends from our golf club and Probus had spoken highly of APT's exceptional travel experiences, so we already knew it was a trusted name in luxury touring.

Did the holiday meet your expectations? Our expectations were high, and APT exceeded them. We initially wondered how well the itinerary would balance relaxation and sightseeing, but those concerns disappeared once the tour began. There was a perfect mix of activities, and we always had the option to explore at our own pace.

What was a standout experience? Milford Sound/Piopiotahi was absolutely breathtaking. Cruising through the fjords, surrounded by towering cliffs and waterfalls, was unlike anything we'd ever experienced.

Which town or city stood out to you the most? Queenstown was my favourite. It offered the perfect balance of adventure and relaxation, with stunning scenery and friendly locals. We especially loved the gondola ride to Bob's Peak — our cameras were working overtime!

Tell us about the TranzAlpine train journey. It was magical. We travelled through lush rainforests and the dramatic Southern Alps in absolute comfort — it's one of the best ways to experience New Zealand's diverse landscapes.

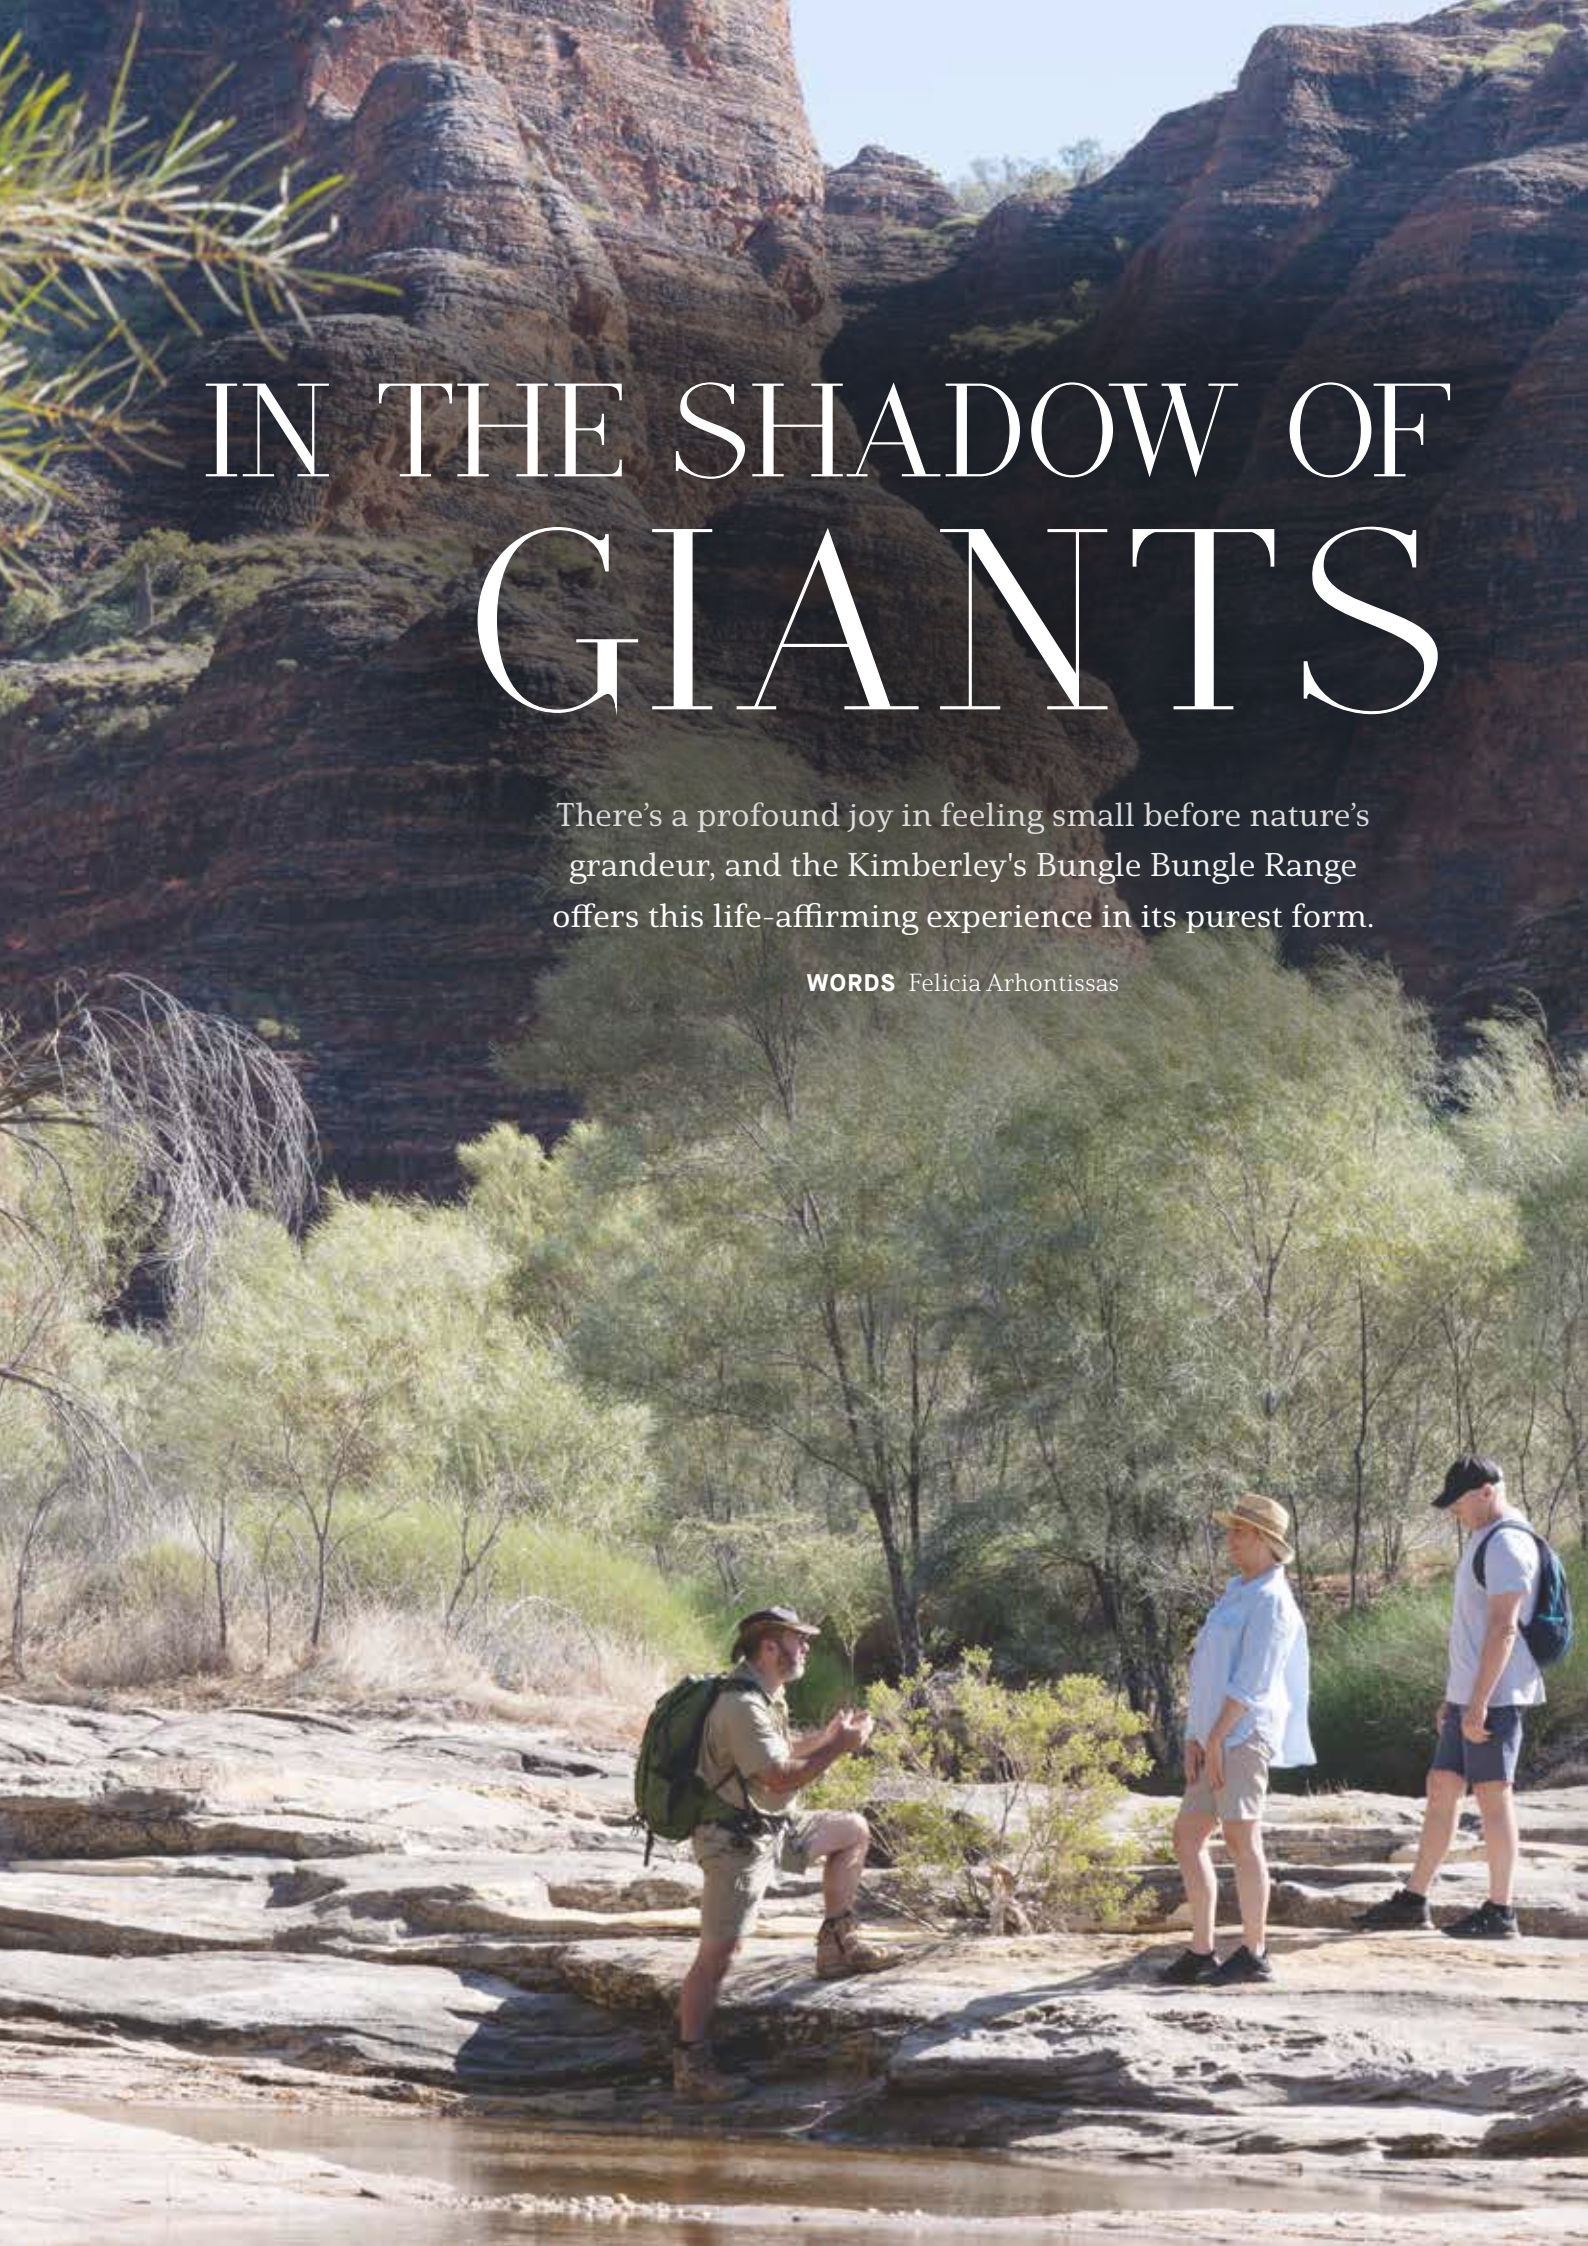

Was there anything unexpected about the tour? We were pleasantly surprised by the level of personal attention we received from our Tour Director and local guides. They went above and beyond to ensure we had a memorable experience, sharing expert insights and plenty of laughs.

How was the dining throughout the trip? Exceptional. There was great variety, and we loved sampling local specialties — it added to the overall experience.

Who would you recommend APT to? Anyone who wants a seamless, stress-free holiday with a touch of luxury. It was wonderful to be surprised by each new hotel and experience without the hassle of planning everything ourselves.

What's next on your travel wish list? We're considering an APT river cruise through Europe. The idea of exploring multiple destinations while enjoying the comforts of a luxury river ship is very appealing.

There's a certain magic that comes with encountering the sublime – a humbling reminder of something far greater than us. These moments often unfold in nature, where boundless power and beauty stir a deep sense of awe. Whether it's an electric thunderstorm or a mountaintop shrouded in mist, these rare occurrences are when we discover the joys of our own insignificance. The Kimberley is a master in the sublime, and few landscapes rival the monumental grandeur of the Bungle Bungle Range.

Instantly recognisable, the Bungle Bungle Range's striped sandstone domes cover approximately 450 square kilometres in a beehive-like formation, with some of the domes reaching up to 250 metres tall. At this magnitude and with a geological history that dates back 350 million years, it's astounding the range remained hidden from the wider world for so long.

While the Traditional Custodians of Purnululu National Park, the Karjaganujaru people, have lived in the area for over 20,000 years, it wasn't until 1983 when a pilot tipped off a documentary crew about the strange, rippling land formation he'd spotted. Shortly after that, the rest of the world became aware of the wonder that is the Bungle Bungle Range.

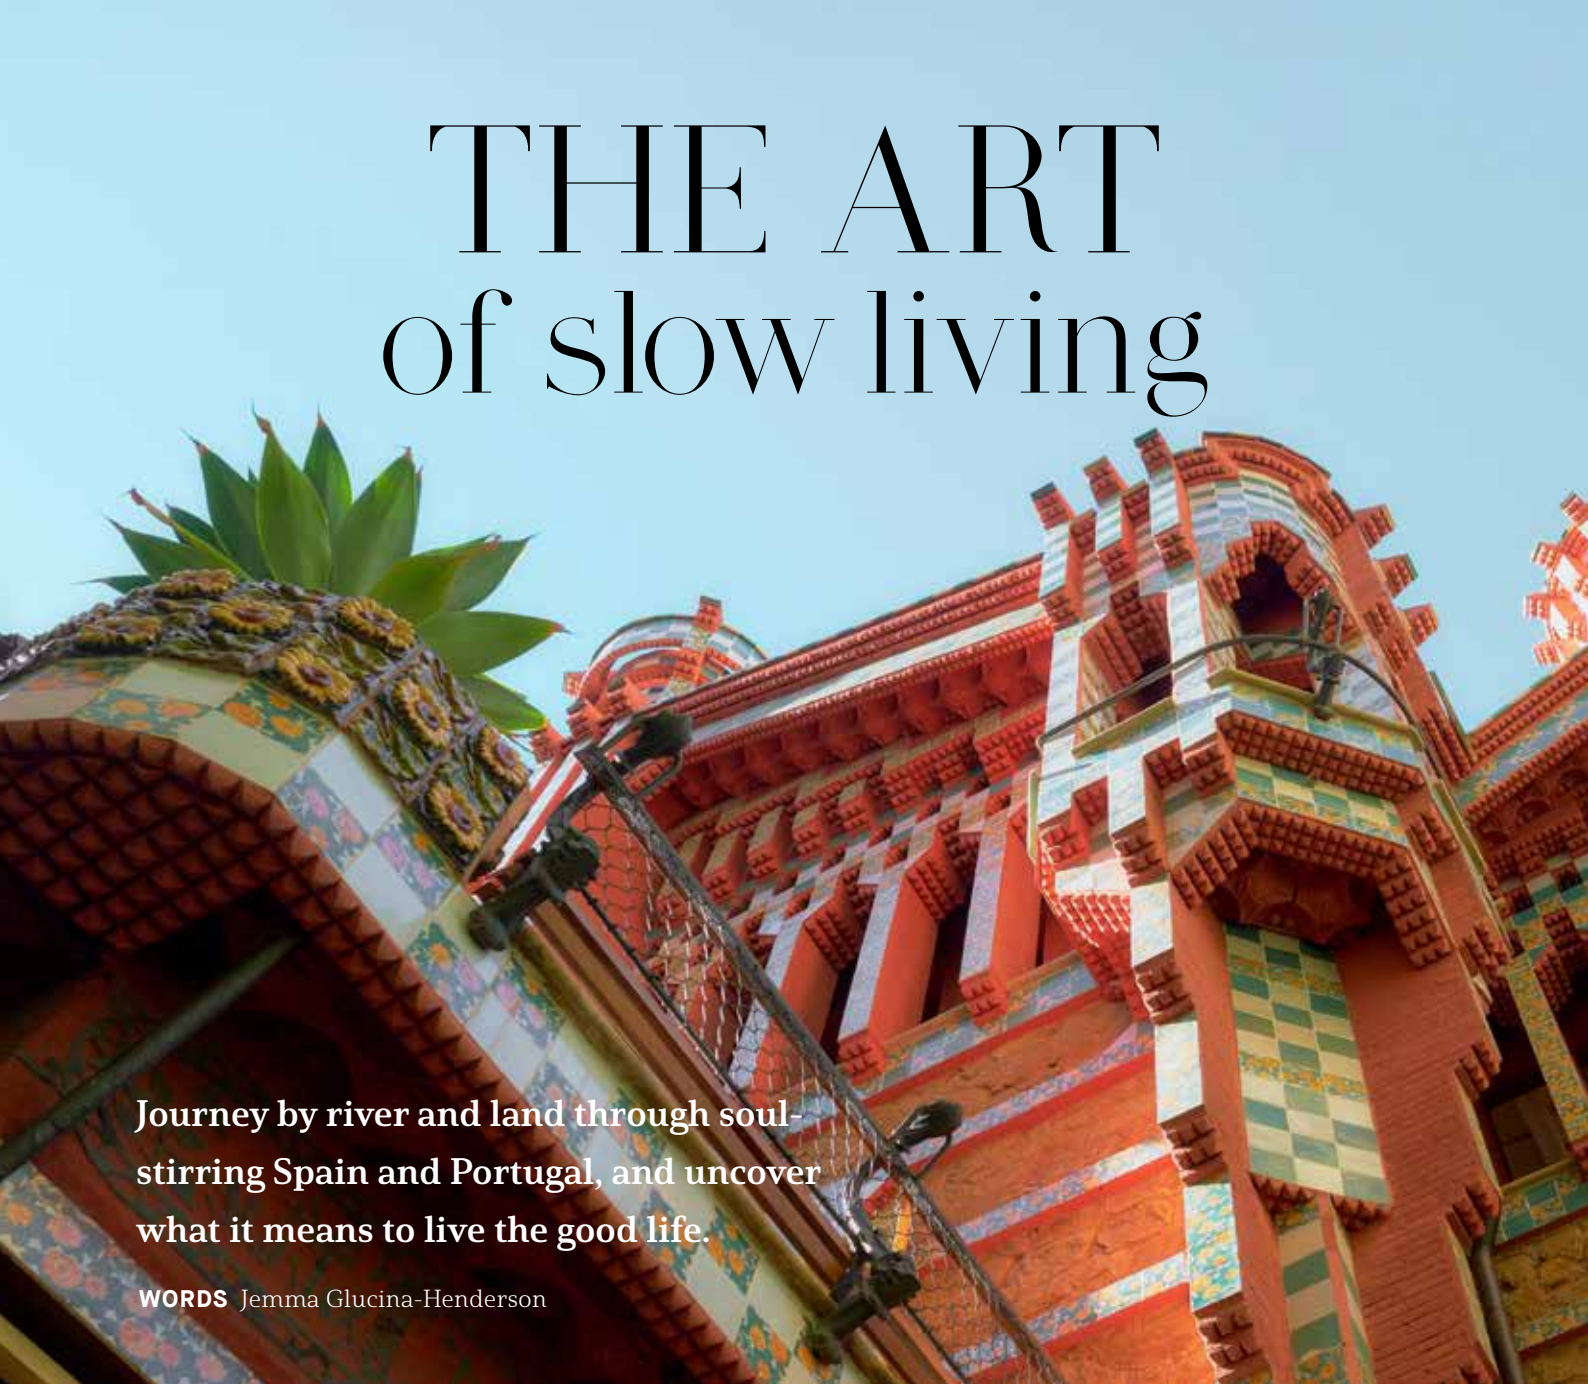

Beyond the Range's colossal domes, the magical landscapes of Purnululu National Park continue. Follow walking trails past sheer rock walls to the vast gorge system of Piccaninny Creek. Step foot in the striking natural amphitheatre of Cathedral Gorge via a two-kilometre stroll among tiger-striped domes. Squeeze between 200-metre-high walls, that are merely a metre wide in places, to Echidna Chasm, where you'll discover prehistoric Livistona palms and gorge walls painted in vibrant hues of ochre, red and orange.

Purnululu National Park is an endless showcase of nature at its most majestic. If there's one way to view the range in all its glory, it's by helicopter. This optional experience offers a rare bird's-eye perspective over Piccaninny Gorge, Cathedral Gorge and the undulating mountain range. If you prefer to keep your feet on the ground, sip a flute of sparkling wine and sit back to witness the striated domes transform during golden hour into a fiery riot of colour.

APT's exclusive Bungle Bungle Wilderness Lodge is located a stone's throw from the spectacular region. Offering a splash of luxury in the Outback, stay in comfortable tented cabins with private en suites and decks, and indulge in three-course dinners each evening, expertly prepared with native herbs and spices.

Feeling small can be a wonderful thing, especially in the face of nature's most magnificent landscapes. To experience the wonders of Purnululu National Park, as well as the luxury of APT's luxury Wilderness Lodges at Bell Gorge and the Bungle Bungle Range, and the recently renovated Mitchell Falls Wilderness Lodge, join APT on an epic 4WD Tour.

THE ART of slow living

Journey by river and land through soul-stirring Spain and Portugal, and uncover what it means to live the good life.

WORDS Jemma Glucina-Henderson

Picture this. The Iberian sun gently envelopes your skin and shimmers on the surface of the Douro. Ancient terraced vineyards cascade in every direction, punctuated by quaint stone villages. An enchanting magic permeates the air that cannot be traced to a single source. Life here unfolds at a slower pace. There's a sweeping stillness that allows you to notice and savour each moment.

If there's one defining characteristic of the Portuguese lifestyle, it's the concept of 'desfrutar', which means 'to enjoy'. It's all about taking a moment to appreciate life's simple pleasures, from a leisurely stroll along the beach to a relaxed meal shared with family and friends. This philosophy is woven into the fabric of daily life in Portugal, from the lively streets of Lisbon to the sun-drenched Algarve and serene countryside.

No place better embodies the ethos of 'desfrutar' than the picturesque Douro Valley. Spend eight days discovering the region's family-run quintas, medieval castles and riverside towns while cruising along the Douro River aboard the brand-new, purpose-built MS Estrela. Offering unparalleled comfort and style, from its 57 luxurious staterooms and suites to two exquisite dining venues, the MS Estrela promises an unforgettable journey through Portugal's spectacular wine country.

As you cruise from Pinhão to Régua, arguably the most scenic stretch of the Douro River, you'll be left spellbound. Soak up views of rolling valleys dotted with olive groves and endless vineyards from the spacious Sun Deck, outdoor pool, golf putting green or alfresco restaurant and bar. The choice is yours.

From tranquil Portuguese towns to tapas bars in Spain, embark on an adventure where luxury meets effortless discovery.

Gourmet lovers will rejoice as they sample Portuguese cuisine, as well as some of the region's best Port and Vinho Verde. Highlights include a traditional lunch and wine tasting overlooking the Douro River at the 16th-century Quinta da Pacheca, as well as a tasting at Taylor's Port in Porto, one of the oldest of the founding Port houses.

In Portugal and Spain's cities, you'll continue to discover a laid-back rhythm and what it means to live the good life. Iconic destinations like Porto, Seville and Barcelona draw millions of tourists each year, and for good reason. There are countless wonders to discover, from Gaudí's architectural masterpieces to plazas buzzing with energy as chatter fills the midnight air. And with APT's experienced Tour Directors and local guides, you can explore Europe's most popular cities with ease, enjoying the perfect blend of famous landmarks and lesser-known treasures. Unique experiences take you beneath the surface of local culture and history, while pre-booked and private tours mean you won't have to queue for attractions. All luggage transfers will be managed for you, making travel effortless.

Enjoy an exclusive before-hours visit to Casa Vicens in Barcelona, Gaudí's first major project and a brilliant example of his distinctive architectural style. Gaze in wonder at Velázquez's Las Meninas among a myriad of other famous works at the Museo del Prado in the heart of Madrid. And in a local gypsy cave in Granada, feel the passion of a flamenco show as you graze on tantalising tapas.

Journey to the Iberian Peninsula and you'll discover how to master the art of slow living. ▶

MEET THE EXPEDITION Expert

Expedition Leader Luciano Bernacchi shares an insider's perspective on what makes an exclusive APT Seabourn cruise truly exceptional beyond compare.

What brought you to a career cruising Europe and what does your role involve?

My interest in wildlife and wilderness areas led me to work in adventure travel and eco-tourism. As the Expedition Leader, I work side-by-side with the Captain, making operational decisions about the itinerary, and with the Hotel Director, planning the onboard activities. I oversee safety measures, timings and how the day unfolds for our outdoor activities – such as Zodiac cruises, landings, kayak sessions and submersible dives – and I continuously monitor weather and sea conditions.

On an APT Seabourn cruise, what can guests expect to see?
As a common denominator: stunning scenery, unspoilt wilderness and unique wildlife. Very few have the opportunity to experience what our guests do.

What makes cruising on a Seabourn ship so special?
Our brand-new ships are purpose-built for expeditions. The manoeuvrability, versatility, power and ability to sail into areas that would otherwise be impossible to reach truly enhance our guests' experiences. We run a very smooth operation, and guests love how the ship, crew and staff work in unison to provide an unforgettable expedition experience.

What is your most memorable wildlife sighting to date?
Polar bears hunting seals as they moved around their endangered natural habitat on the sea ice.

Describe a typical day for the Seabourn Expedition Team
We always have very early starts to get ready for the day's operations. We scout the landing areas by Zodiac for a couple of hours before taking our first group of guests out for Zodiac excursions. Back on board, we socialise with the guests, host dinners, offer lectures and plan for the following day.

Why should guests cruise with Seabourn and APT?
We bring together exceptional ships, an expert crew, unrivalled knowledge, impeccable service, and a genuine passion for exploration — creating the perfect formula for an extraordinary expedition experience.

Embark on an exclusive APT Seabourn cruise to a host of incredible destinations in Northern Europe including the United Kingdom, Ireland, the Faroe Islands, Iceland and Greenland. Explore all cruises on aptouring.com.au

A PRIDE BEYOND the Wild

The spice of safari life beats past the thundering hooves and prowling predators of the savanna.

WORDS Alexander Simpson

While the Serengeti and Masai Mara abound with extraordinary wildlife encounters — elephants ambling across golden plains, leopards melting into dappled shadows, hippos submerged in sunlit pools — East Africa's true essence extends far beyond its wild spirit. Indeed, a rich tapestry of culture, cuisine, and primeval heritage awaits within its embrace.

Venture by light plane into Tanzania's wilderness, where the landscapes shift from the shimmering aquascapes of Lake Manyara — home to flamboyances of flamingos — to the untamed expanses of the savanna. Here, nature and tradition converge. Within Ngorongoro Crater — 'Africa's Garden of Eden' — gaze upon an astonishing amphitheatre alive with zebras, lions, wildebeest, and gazelles. Step into the heart of a Maasai village, where the scent of wood smoke lingers in the air, blending with the rhythmic cadence of daily rituals. And at Mto Wa Mbu, be uplifted by the joyful serenades of Kilimatembo School's children, their harmonies a heartfelt welcome. With support from APT's OneTomorrow charitable fund, the school thrives, and your journey provides a lasting impact on this vibrant community in Tanzania's Arusha Region.

The Serengeti unfolds in breathtaking scale, its vast horizons a stage for nature's grandest spectacles. Witness a lioness stalk the savanna with poised precision, marvel at giraffes delicately plucking leaves from towering acacias, and feel the earth quiver beneath the hooves of migrating wildebeest. At Olduvai Gorge, trace the origins of humankind with a private tour of this revered palaeoanthropological site, known as the 'Cradle of Mankind'.

Each meal becomes a journey of its own, a celebration of flavour and tradition. Savour expertly grilled meats, fragrant ugali, and slow-cooked stews, followed by mandazi — delicate pastries infused with coconut and cardamom. Indulge in East Africa's fusion of Indian, French, and Swahili influences, from succulent tilapia to aromatic barbecues. Beneath a canopy of stars at Kenya's Karen Blixen Camp, a lantern-lit bush dinner reveals the soul of local cuisine, rich with bold spices and time-honoured recipes. As twilight deepens, sip on sundowners at sunset, watching the landscape fade from gold to indigo while stories unfold by the fireside's glow.

Evenings retreat into refined serenity. At Karen Blixen Camp in the Masai Mara, your private deck overlooks the Mara River, where hippos wallow in moonlit waters. In Tanzania, the Meliá Serengeti Lodge offers breathtaking panoramas of endless plains from its infinity pool, the distant call of lions punctuating the night.

A remarkable journey into the depths of East Africa promises not just extraordinary wildlife encounters, but an authentic immersion into the soul of Kenya and Tanzania, where rich landscapes, vibrant heritage and dynamic culture blend to create an experience as enduring as the land itself.
